INTELLECTS

Of Many Nations Will Illumine Proceedings of Eucharistic Congress.

Montreal Will Be Center of Attraction For Next Few Weeks.

Able Minds Will Prepare Papers On One Great Grand
Theme.

NON-CATHOLICS MORE TOLERANT

In solemnity, grandeur and magnificence the Eucharistic Congress which will be held in Montreal next month promises to surpass any religious demonstration ever seen in America; not excepting the Catholic Congress in Baltimore, the Congress of Religions in Chicago or the late centennial celebration in New York City. As the famous drama at Oberammergau depicts in a wonderful manner the passion and death of Christ, so the Eucharistic Congress portrays and emphasizes one scene in the tragedy, the Last Supper, or the institution of the Eucharist, in which Christ promised to continue his personal presence among men to the end of time.

The festivities will begin on Tuesday, September 6, when Cardinal Legate Vannutelli will be formally received at the Cathedral.
From then until the mammoth street procession on the following Sunday each day will have its particular functions.

At the suggestion of a devout woman in 1789, whose humility forbade the use of her name, the idea of holding great international congresses in the principal cities of the world for the purpose of studying the doctrine of the Eucharist was taken up by priests, bishops and Cardinals among the clergy, and by jurists, magistrates and public functionaries among the laymen all over the world. The result was that these great congresses have been held for thirty years in leading cities of Europe, including Lille, Fribourg, Rheims, Paris, Jerusalem, Brussels, Lourdes, Rome, London and Cologne.

Although the opposition to this doctrine prevented the public procession in its honor two years ago in London, it is a remarkable fact that within two years of that date public sentiment so moderated in the matter that today the royal coronation oath, denouncing the doctrine, has been modified. It is also a significant fact that at the Eucharistic Congress held in Cologne last year the German Emperor, although a Protestant, sent a personal representative to represent him in the procession. The work of hostility to the doctrine as it becomes better understood is also shown in America by the fact that the Protestant candidate for Mayor of Montreal withdrew this year in order that the Catholic might hold office during the Congress; and that Lord Strathmore, though a non-Catholic, has tendered the use of his place to the Archbishop of Montreal for the entertainment of the Papal Delegate and other visiting prelates.

The programme of the conferences for the congress is a masterly arrangement of Eucharistic topics, studied, varied, comprehensive, but each with reference to the one central theme, the Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist in all its various phases and effects as sacrament and sacrifice, the center of Christian Catholic cult.

In both English and French sections the Catholic "who's who" has been ransacked to procure writers eminently and especially suited for each particular paper. In their choice the committee have gone the length and breadth of Canada and the United States. They have gone to Newfoundland, too, which will be splendidly represented by Archbishop Howley, of St. John's. He will read a paper on "Frequent Communion."

ETERNAL SLEEP

Comes to Joseph P. Hennessy in His Early Youth.

After a long illness Joseph P.
Hennessey died at the family residence, 737 East Chestnut street, at 8 o'clock on Monday morning. The deceased was a son of the late Winifred Hennessey and the late John Hennessy. He was in his sixteenth year and was a graduate of St. John's school. He realized many months ago that his time on earth was short and spent all his time in preparation for the life hereafter.

Surviving him are his mother, his grandmother and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Guy Oster-man, Mrs. John J. Barry, Misses Mary and Margaret Hennessey, Daniel J., John, Harry and William Hennessey.

The funeral, which was very largely attended, took place from St. John's church at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning. The Rev. Dr.
George W. Schuhmann celebrated the high mass of requiem and preached a feeling sermon at the close of the mass. It was an admonition not only to boys and girls of tender age, but to grown men and women as well, to keep ever in mind that this life is fleeting; that the life to come is eternal. Joe Hennessey, he said, had received the advantage of a Christian education, so that while he had learned to strive for earthly prizes and success, he had also kept in mind that higher prize, that lasting success, eternal happiness with his Redeemer.

BUSY MACKIN

West End of Y. M. I. Council Always Has New Projects.

President John T. Kenney presided over a well attended meeting of Mackin Council on Monday night.
Seven members were reported on the list. The joint debate between rival teams from Mackin Council and Barto Council will be held at Owen-boro on Sunday, September 11.
"Woman Suffrage" will be the question, and Mackin's team will take the affirmative. Her representatives will be William Burke and Louis Kleffer. It is expected that several hundred members of Mackin Council and their lady friends will go to Owensboro to hear the debate.
Several extra coaches will carry the excursionists.

Mackin's lawn fete will be given on the club house lawn on the evenings of Tuesday and Wednesday, September 7 and 8. The members who dispose of the greatest number of tickets will receive a certified check to cover the expense of a trip to the world's championship baseball series.
William Link, Secretary of Mackin Council, has been placed in charge of the electrical illumination of the lawn, and something new and inviting in the way of lights is promised.

HONOR FOR PASTOR.

From letters and postcards received by his parishioners it is learned that the Rev. Father Thomas P. White, pastor of the Church of St. Francis of Rome, was received in private audience with the Pope. His Holiness gave him permission to inter-part the Papal blessing to his flock on his return. During his absence his parishioners are building an addition to the parochial school. Father White will be home a week from tomorrow.

CLOCK FOR CHURCH TOWER.

The Rev. Father Ignatius Ahman will soon have a handsome clock in the tower of St. Aloysius' church at Covington. The clock will be illuminated by electricity and will be seen from all parts of the city. His parishioners have entered heartily into the project.

LAWN FETE

For Worthy Charity Is Expected to Attract Big Crowd.

Earnest Workers Will Aid Sts.
Mary and Elizabeth Hospital.

Good Sisters of Charity Are Under Heavy Expense
at Present.

LABORED LONG AND FAITHFULLY

Great preparations have been made for the lawn fete to be given for the benefit of Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital next Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon and evening.
The fete will be held on the spacious hospital grounds. Meetings have been held each Sunday for a month and laymen and women are working hard to make the enterprise a success.

The following committees have been announced:
Dining Room—Mrs. Grot, Chairman, assisted by Mesdames Nadorf, Schmidt, Hick, Miller, Schwartz, Hamel, Scharfberger, Harley.

Chairman, Mesdames H. Reeder, P.
Erwin, Butler, O'Connor, J. Gorman and Miss Dooey.

A. Miller, Kinberger, Quigley, Drake, Misses Roche and Wathen.

All of these committees will attend the general meeting to be held at the hospital tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. There will be many attractions both afternoon and evening and amusements for both young and old.

Sts. Mary and Elizabeth's Hospital was founded more than thirty-five years ago by a benevolent gentleman now deceased. Since its establishment it has been conducted by the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth.
They have done a great work during all these years and have made many improvements. Now they have found it necessary to erect an addition.
This work will entail an expense of $80,000. To meet this the Sisters ask their friends to assist them in making the hazard a success. The new addition will be four stories high and will contain several surgical wards, an operating room, a pharmaceutical laboratory and other necessary adjuncts. The new addition will be equipped in the latest manner and will make Sts. Mary and Elizabeth's Hospital one of the finest in the South.

There are few families in the city of Louisville who have not at some time had experience with the ministrations of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth. They have been untiring in their efforts, and have won the affection of all who have been their patients. Clergy and laity are working hard to help the Sisters now in their hour of need. From all indications the hospital grounds will be thronged next Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Sisters, through County President Patrick Welsh, have invited the Ladies' Auxiliary and the four divisions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians to be present on one or both days.

Preparations have been made for mammoth euchre games both afternoons and evenings. Miss Mollie Curran, who is head of the committee, promises to have plenty of tables to accommodate all players.

U. I. L. CONVENTION

Will Gather Many Irish Patriots to Hear Envoys.

Buffalo Irishmen are preparing a warm welcome for the delegates who will attend the national convention of the United Irish League, which will be held in that city next month.
Every section of the United States will be represented. The delegates will be welcomed to Buffalo by Bishop Colton, Mayor Fuhrmann and President Henry W. Killen, of the local branch of the United Irish League. National President Michael J. Ryan, of Philadelphia, will deliver the response.

On the evening of September 28 a mass meeting will be held at the Irish envoys, Hon. J. E. Redmond, Hon. T. P. O'Connor, Hon. Joseph Devlin and Alderman Boyle, of Manchester, England, will be the chief speakers.

The convention will be of great interest to Irishmen everywhere, because the crisis in the fight for home rule is at hand. If the English Government sees that the Irish in America are in earnest in their demand for home rule for Ireland the next session of Parliament will see the question settled.

MISS HOWARD WINS AUTO.

That Irish-American lead in hustling ability is once more attested by the victory of Miss Anna

Howard, of Ashland, Ky., who won first prize in the contest set up by the Ashland Daily Independent.
Miss Howard received 2,667,230 votes. Her nearest opponent received 2,192,660. As a reward for her hustling ability Miss Howard will receive a handsome automobile.
Miss Howard is a daughter of Capt.
Thomas Howard, a veteran Hiber-nian. The young lady is a member of the Ladies' Auxiliary, and will help entertain the visiting ladies at the coming State convention.

RECEPTION

To State and County Presidents Planned by Division 2.

President Con J. Ford presided over a well attended meeting of Division 2, A. O. H., on Friday night of last week. John Burke, who has been seriously ill, was reported to be much improved. It was decided not to fix the date for Division 2's outing until the next meeting. President Ford announced that the next meeting would also be in the nature of a social session with refreshments.
In fact, it will partake of the nature of a reception to State President George J. Butler and County President Patrick Welsh, who represented the Kentucky Hibernians at the recent National convention at Portland, Ore. The members of the other three divisions will be welcome, and it is expected that the attendance will be the largest of the year.

RECENT DEATHS.

Richard Barry, seventy years old, died at the O'Leary Home, Barrett and Christy avenues, on Tuesday evening. Death came suddenly and was due to heart disease. The deceased was a native of Ireland. For several years he was a teacher at St. Mary's College in Marion county.

Last Sunday morning the Angel of Death entered the home of William and Mary Phelan, 522 Zane street, taking from them their infant son Edward. The child was the idol of his parents, whose greatest consolation in their grief is that an angel awaits them in heaven. The funeral took place Monday afternoon with interment in St. Louis cemetery.

Thomas E. Holland, twenty-six years old, died at the family residence, 2102 West Main street, on Saturday afternoon. He had been suffering from tuberculosis for several months. His survivors are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W.
Holland, a sister, Miss Helen Holland, and two brothers, Raymond and Delmar Holland. Many old friends of the deceased attended the funeral, which took place from St.
Columba's church on Monday morning.

Miss Margaret O'Keefe died at the family residence, 1231 South Seventh street, early on Thursday morning. She had been ill two years and suffered from nervous trouble. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Har-nah O'Keefe; two brothers, John and Patrick O'Keefe, and one sister, Mrs. Hannah Lee. The funeral will take place from St. Louis Bertrand's church at 9 o'clock this morning.
Miss O'Keefe was deservedly popular and her untimely demise is mourned by many friends and admirers.

Michael Davin died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. John Smith, 1232 Portland avenue, on Wednesday afternoon. The deceased was born in Ireland seventy-four years ago, but had spent more than forty years in Louisville. He is survived by several children. They are Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. W. P.
Burke and Miss Mary Davin, and Peter, John, Robert and Francis Davin. The deceased was popular with all who knew him. The funeral will take place from St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock this morning.

St. Augustine's parish in Jeffersonville mourns the death of one of its most devout and highly esteemed members, Miss Addie Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes, 408 West Market street. Her death occurred on Sunday, the anniversary of her birth, and the funeral took place Tuesday morning, Rev. Father John O'Connell being the celebrant of the high mass of requiem. Besides her father and mother Miss Hughes is survived by four sisters and two brothers as follows: Mrs.
John B. Field, of St. Louis; Mrs.
Joseph Ewing, Miss Jennie Hughes, Miss Josephine Hughes, Charles R.
T. Hughes and Edgar Hughes, all of Jeffersonville.

FOREST PLAYGROUNDS.

The national forests of the United States are growing in use as national playgrounds. Before the year's outgoing season is over nearly half a million persons will have sought recreation and health in the nation's forests of the United States. According to the records of the United States Department of Agriculture the total last year was, in close figures, 466,775. With the finest mountain scenery and much of the best fishing and big-game hunting in the United States, the national forests, made more and more accessible each year through protection and development by the Government, are fast becoming great national playgrounds for the people.
The use of the forests for recreation is as yet in its beginning, but is growing steadily and rapidly—in-some of the forests at the rate of 100 per cent. per annum. The day seems not far distant when a million persons will annually visit them.

CONCORDAT.

What the Term Means and Its Obligations On Both Sides.

Jesuit Journalist Gives Able Exposition of Church's View.

Temporal Power Must Always Be Inferior to the Spiritual.

THE ONLY VIEW FOR CATHOLIC

So many articles expressing as many varied opinions relative to the present strained relations between the Vatican and the Spanish Government have been written that even a majority of American Catholics have become tangled in their ideas of concordats. The editor of America, the great weekly review of the world's events edited by the Jesuits, says that this tangled state of affairs had given rise to many misconceptions. So in the latest edition of America he states the matter very plainly. Almost any child that has come to the use of reason can understand him. He says in part:

"A concordat evidently means an agreement, and the word is confined nowadays to agreements between the Holy See and the supreme civil authority governing ecclesiastical administration. There are three possibilities regarding the relative conditions of parties to an agreement.
They may be equals and independent, or one may be superior and independent in some respects, yet having its supremacy in others. Those who look upon the Church and State as equals and co-ordinate bodies, who admit that each has its own sphere in which each party acquires rights that can not be extinguished except under conditions expressed in it or by new agreement. Few hold that idea regarding Church and State; consequently this notion of a concordat is rare.

"Some Catholics, it is true, regard it as a contract, but in doing so they add so many qualifications that they eventually do not differ practically from those who hold the more approved doctrine. Such as consider the State as absolutely supreme and the Church as a subordinate society completely dependent upon it within the bounds of its jurisdiction look upon a concordat as a civil law by which the former controls the latter and which it can add to or change or abrogate at pleasure. This was the view of Napoleon I., who added to the concordat concluded with Pius VII, his organic articles and proclaimed them part of that instrument. It is the view of the Liberals today. According to them a concordat is negotiated with the Holy See to humor the Catholic conscience; its only validity comes from the law of the State confirming it, which may be amended or repealed as the State thinks fit.

"The Catholic doctrine of the relation between Church and State is that each is supreme in its own order; in purely spiritual things the State is inferior to the Church, and in matters in which the spiritual and temporal orders come into conflict the right of the former prevails in-itself over that of the latter, since the spiritual is of its nature superior to the temporal. Hence a concordat from the Catholic point of view is a privilege or concession granted by the Roman Pontiff.

"For a clearer idea of its nature and binding force several things must be noted. The power of the Roman Pontiff is spiritual, and therefore administrative only. He is controlled in the exercise of his office by the unchangeable constitution which our Lord gave the church in founding it. Hence he is not free to grant any privilege that may be desired. And since he only administers an office instituted by Christ he can neither restrict the rights of that office nor the rights of its orders to exercise those rights fully, whether such occupant be himself or a successor. Hence he can not bind himself or his successors irrevocably; but he and they retain the power of recalling a concordat. The civil power is bound strictly by the concordat, and can not free itself from its obligations by rejecting it. Should a modification of a concordat be desired the civil power must ask it, stating sincerely what it wants and why, without conceding anything, and above all without any hostile intention of using new concessions to the detriment of religion.

"From all this Catholics can see that the question of concordats, as it is a living issue today, is essentially religious, bound up with the divine constitution of the church.
They are not free to hold what views they please, but are bound to support the Holy Father and maintain with him the cause of Christ against all enemies of our holy faith."

POPE SENDS BLESSINGS.

Cardinal Vannutelli left Naples on Monday en route for Liverpool, where he will sail for Montreal. His Eminece was received in farewell audience by Pope Pius X. on Saturday, and comes to America as the Pope's special legate to the World's Eucharistic Congress, which will be held in Montreal September 6 to 11.
His Holiness sent a special blessing to the delegates.

MAKING GOOD.

Young New Yorker After Short Weights and Measures.

Clem Driscoll, New York's boyish looking Commissioner of Weights and Measures, is making things hot for people who sell at false weights and short measures. His campaign brought post-haste to New York the best convicers, manipulators, attorneys and special agents of big scale manufacturers, all willing to do anything in the world if New York will only let them go on selling the same sort of scales as before.
"And the kind of scales that you have been selling in New York," said Commissioner Driscoll before a large gathering of scale men the other day, "wouldn't be tolerated in any decent country—certainly not in England, France or Germany.
There is no use arguing about it. A pound has got to weigh a pound on the scales that will sell in this city or there will be trouble."

His full name is Clement James Driscoll, and he was born in New York less than thirty-five years ago and looks like a boy. Since he took hold he has been a terror to merchants who sold seventy-six inch blankets and represented them to be eighty-two inches wide. He is also after ice men, coal men, hucksters and all dealers who use short weights. Driscoll was until appointed by Mayor Gaynor a reporter on a New York newspaper.

MAJORITY REPORT.

Favors Irish Control of Railways of the Land.

The editor of the Dundalk Democrat says the majority report of the Vice-regal Commission on Irish railways, which is signed by all the Irishmen on the commission, adopts the view that if the Irish railways are to carry out the purpose for which they were sanctioned by Parliament, that is to afford the best transit facilities and develop the trade and resources of the country, they must be placed under Irish control.

The editor says it was clearly demonstrated to the commission that the system of public control has worked well in Denmark, Belgium, Germany, Holland, Switzerland and the colonies, but the Commissioners were especially impressed by the great benefits arising from the national railway control in Prussia and New Zealand. It is worthy of note that the Irishmen on the commission, Lord Pierre, Col. Hutchinson, Poe and Thomas Sexton, although selected by the Lord Lieutenant, are representative of all the interests in the country, and have the confidence of the people.

If the recommendations of the majority are adopted, the County Councils, the Harbor Boards, the Chambers of Commerce, the Cattle Traders and the Industrial Development Associations will be directly represented on the Board of Directors of the Irish railways.

NEW CHURCH.

Plans For St. Charles Borromeo's Are Undergoing Inspection.

Plans and specifications for the new Church of St. Charles Borromeo are undergoing inspection in the Building Inspector's office. As soon as they have been approved Architect C. A. Curtin will proceed promptly with the erection of the new edifice at the Twenty-ninth and Chestnut streets. The work will be pushed as rapidly as possible when once begun.

The new church will be built in the Italian renaissance style of architecture and will be a stately and handsome structure. It will be ninety-six feet long and sixty-seven feet wide. The sanctuary will be twenty-five by seventeen feet, and the two sacristies will be each twenty-two by nineteen feet. The estimated cost is $75,000. The frame work will be of steel covered with buff Indiana oolite stone.

For several years St. Charles' parish has been growing rapidly, and the necessity of building a new and more commodious structure has been apparent. Father C. P. Raffo, the pastor, will be a very happy man when his new church is completed.

POPE BLESSES KNIGHTS.

On Wednesday Pope Pius X. received in audience a delegation of 150 American pilgrims, including fifty members of the Knights of Columbus. The pilgrims were presented by the Rev. M. J. McGivney, of Middletown, Conn., National Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus. His Holiness expressed great satisfaction at meeting for the second time within a month members of an order whose work in the United States he so highly appreciated. He gave the pilgrims his Apostolic blessing and made the Knights remain submissive to their Bishops, who represent the church.

NEW SPRINTING RECORD.

Running at Olympia Park, New York, last Saturday, Melvin W.
Sheppard established a new distance running record by going two-thirds of a mile in 2:44 2-5. This clip a second from the record held by Langhi, the Italian, Sheppard is the crack sprinter of the New York Irish-American Athletic Club.

KERRY,

Home of Poet, Peasant, Orator and Fisheryfolk Is Famed Afar.

Angels Fold Their Wings and Rest in That Eden of the West Killarney.

Tallest Mountain Peak in Ireland Is One of Macgill-cuddy's Reeks.

LOUISVILLE HAS KERRY CITIZENS

The County Kerry is on the southwestern coast of Ireland. The county and its natives have been famed in song and story. Kerry is bounded on the west by the Atlantic ocean, on the north by the River Shannon, on the east by Cork and Limerick, and on the south by Ken-mare river. Its greatest length, from Tarbert on the Shannon to Polus Head, is sixty-nine miles; its greatest breadth, from Mweeluh Mountain to Smierwick Harbor, is fifty-three and a half miles. Its area is 1,853 square miles, and it has a population of 201,039.

The northern part of the county is moderately level; all the rest, with some trifling exceptions, being mountainous. The Kerry Mountains form part of the great group that covers the west and southwest of both Kerry and Cork; like those of Cork they generally run in chain east and west. They include the grandest combination of mountain scenery, the most perceptible steep and the finest valleys in Ireland.
One of the prominent mountain chains is called Macgillcuddy's Reeks, of which Carruntuohill, 3,414 feet high, is the tallest summit in Ireland.

The Gap of Dunloe, a magnificent ravine, cuts right across the chain from north to south, separating the Reeks from the Killarney Mountains, which are the continuation of the chain to the east. West of the Reeks the most conspicuous mountains are Drung, 2,104 feet high, and west of it Knocknaduber, 2,266 feet tall, both rising from the very shore of Dingle Bay. The whole of the Dingle peninsula is a mass of mountains. The grand mountain Brandon, 3,127 feet high, stands directly over the sea. St.
Brendan, from which Brandon takes its name, was a native of this district and lived in the sixth century.
He is often called "The Navigator" on account of his famous voyage, in which it is said he spent seven years sailing on the Atlantic ocean, more than 800 years before Christopher Columbus made the attempt. His little oratory under Brandon Mountain is still held in veneration.

The coast of Kerry is pierced by deep bays, which cut the land and narrow peninsulas, and from these larger bays innumerable small ones branch off, presenting an infinite variety of the finest seacoast scenery the entire way from Tarbert to Ken-mare. Kerry is watered by many fine rivers, including the Shannon, the Blackwater, the Cashen, the Peale, the Brick, the Ciydagh and the Owenduff. Then there is the little river Lee that flows past the town of Tralee and gives the town its name.

The glory of Kerry is its combination of lake and mountain scenery.
The Lakes of Killarney are three in number and are noted the world over. The Kerry people are noted fisheryfolk and cattle raisers. The Kerry cows are especially noted for their yield of milk and butter. In recent years American cattle raisers have imported herds of the Kerry cows, and many of them have found homes on the bluegrass fields of old Kentucky.

Tralee is the assize town of Kerry and has about 10,000 inhabitants. Other well known towns in the county are Listowel, Killarney, Dingle, Ballyteare and Cahirci-veen, the birthplace of Daniel O'Connell.

Antiquarians and scientists tell us that remains of antiquity, both pagan and Christian, are more numerous and in many respects more interesting in Kerry than in any other county of Ireland. There are chapels or oratories in Kerry coeval with the introduction of Christianity into Ireland. In addition Kerry has its round towers or pillar-stones with inscriptions in Roman letters.

TEMPEST IN TEAPOT.

A good many New Yorkers worked themselves into frenzy when it was announced that a replica of the old pewter statue of King George III. was to be erected in the great city's Bowling Green. During the days of the American Revolution the original statue of the tyrant King was torn down and cast into more than 87,000 bullets to shoot the English soldiers. New Yorkers did not want a replica of that statue, and threatened to go after the persons who wanted to erect it.

Now comes Henry C. Kimbly, a lawyer of New York, who declares that it is a patriotic movement. He says that it is not the intention of the promoters to glorify the memory of King George, but will condemn him instead. He also says that an inscription on the pedestal will read:

"This replica of the statue of the tyrant, King George III., is erected in memory of the American patriots who destroyed the original and moulded it into bullets that were used in battling for American liberty."

If these patriotically inclined people want to do something, why not erect a group showing the Revolutionary patriots destroying the statue of the tyrant King?

REMEMBER GOD FIRST.

Why is it that there are so many people who do not go to divine services of any creed on Sundays? Visiting our Catholic churches one sees them apparently well attended at each mass on the Sabbath day, but in every parish and community there are many who do not go at all. The able Jesuit orator, Father Bernard Vaughan, is exhorting the English people to be more regular in their attendance at mass, and what he says of the English is equally true of the United States. But he said to their credit, the Catholics are more regular in their attendance than non-Catholics of any creed.

Father Vaughan in a recent sermon said some blame their lukewarmness on the staleness of the services; the poor quality of the music and sermons; while others point to the outdoor attractions as a reason for staying away. Father Vaughan says the real reason is a lack of religion. People are becoming engrossed in things that appeal to the senses and as a consequence forgetful of God.

In America, as in England, there are many men and women engaged in work-shops and factories six days in the week. Sunday is to them the only day of rest. Forgetful of God, or ignoring Him altogether, many spend the greater part of the day in bed or in idle pastimes.

The Catholic church does not propose healthy amusements even on Sunday, but it wants its adherents to attend to their religious duties first. Parents should see that their children attend mass before going to picnics or ball games on Sunday. Some amusement is necessary, but Catholics should attend mass on Sunday before.

REPUBLICAN WOE.

Minnesota will be the storm center for the Republican party during the next two weeks, and all attention of official leaders will be turned in that direction. On September 6 the National Conservation Congress will meet in St. Paul, and on the same day the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation committee with Senator Knute Nelson, of Minnesota, will assemble in Minneapolis to formulate its findings.

Democrats as well as Republicans anxiously await the issue. A break between the progressive or insurgent Republicans and the standpatners means certain victory to the Democrats in November.

Already the insurgent wave has hit the old line Republican leaders and not a few have been howled over. Other the insurgents nor the standpatners of the administration want to again as Speaker of the House of Representatives. Look at the list of conspicuous standpatners: neither have announced that they would retire or have been defeated for re-election: Nelson W. Aldrich, in Rhode Island; Euene C. Tamm, in Maine; Howard M. Knicker, in Ohio; John A. T. Hull, in Iowa; and D. Cole, in Ohio; Charles F. Johnson, in Ohio; William A. Wood, in Ohio; and William R. Miller, in Ohio; and Duncan E. McKinley, in Ohio.

Former Officer John Quinn has accepted a position as night clerk at the St. Nicholas Hotel. Few young men in Louisville have more friends, and Mr. Quinn's connection with the hotel will add to its popularity.

McLachlan and Sylvester C. Smith, in California.

More breaks and more serious breaks are likely to come as the result of the Ballinger-Pinchot muddle and the conservation congress. It is a time for Democrats to prepare to grasp an opportunity.

THE CHAMPLAIN.

The Champlain, a journal dedicated to the interests of the Catholic Summer School, has made its initial appearance. It is a clean, neat type of chronicle and will be a welcome addition to the Catholic field of journalism. The editor says if the Champlain meets the necessary encouragement a winter number of the journal will be issued. The Kentucky Irish American wishes the Champlain, its editor and managers long life and prosperity.

KING GEORGE'S WOE.

The editor of the Springfield Republican, one of the ablest journalists in New England, says: "Now that the only limitation upon the personal freedom of King George is that he must be some sort of a Protestant Christian, we might infer that is progress, indeed, toward the religious emancipation of His Majesty, although he remains the victim of a species of slavery which none of his subjects would endure. That the ultra-Anglican should have fought this concession to the Non-conformist is not surprising. An established church becomes a kind of absurdity if the Sovereign himself is to be no longer obliged by law to be a member of it, and it involves no great hazard to say that the action of the House of Commons, the bulk of all parties concurring, brings nearer the day when England will tolerate no longer the official maintenance of a particular church by the State in preference to any other."

Fred Forcht, who has served for seven years as Election Commissioner for Jefferson county, has again been selected by the Democratic City and County Committee as its first choice for the position. The selection was ratified by the State Board at Frankfort on Thursday. The choice was the best that could have been made, as Commissioner Forcht enjoys the confidence and respect of all the political parties.

Columbus, Ind., still enjoys the distinction of being the center point of the country's population. The returns thus far announced indicate fairly even growth in all directions and a population approximating 96,000,000.

AGED MATRON MOURNED.

Mrs. Addigunda Schwab, seventy-seven years old, died at the family residence, 1806 Frankfort avenue, on Thursday night of last week. The deceased was born in Germany, but came to America with her parents when twelve years old. The family resided for a time in Indiana and later removed to Louisville. She had resided in this city more than half a century. Her husband, John Schwab, died about six months ago. Four children survive her. They are Mrs. John J. Moritz, Andy and Michael Schwab, and John P. Seger. The funeral took place from St. Joseph's church last Saturday morning, and was attended by many old friends, who recognized the worth and Christian-like charms of this truly good woman.

WANT CENTRAL HOME.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Central Committee of Cincinnati and Hamilton county of the Catholic Knights of America, held on Friday night of last week, the eighteen branches represented were invited to each appoint a conference committee of two members to discuss the advisability of a merger of all the Catholic Knights of America into one large branch in Hamilton county so that the erecting or purchase of a headquarters building may soon be accomplished. There are many Louisville Knights who favor a similar plan for this city.

Prince of Good Fellows Remembered by Friends.

Friends of John J. Barry, the popular Democratic leader of the Fourth and Fifth wards, assembled at his home, 124 East Market street, on Tuesday evening to assist in celebrating the forty-third anniversary of his birth. On behalf of the many friends present, Col. John H. Whallen presented him with a handsome diamond ring.

In his presentation speech Col. Whallen said: "This stone is no whiter, no finer cut, more lustrous than you, John Barry. It is a token of the love and esteem in which your friends and fellow Democrats hold you. It is the greatest pleasure of their lives to honor you this on the forty-third milestone of your life."

Mr. Barry made a brief speech of thanks and then invited all those assembled to the abundance of good things that had been provided.

PLEASED PEOPLE.

Attendance of Thousands Is Proof of Knights Popularity.

The outing at Fontaine Ferry Park on Tuesday given under the auspices of the Central Committee, Catholic Knights of America, attracted thousands to that popular resort. Not only were the Knights of the three Falls cities present, but many members of the order from out in the State were on hand to encourage the local members. Among the visitors was Sylvester Raper, the New Haven banker, who is well known to all Louisville Knights. Hon. N. A. Green, Mayor of New Albany, with his Night Chief of Police, Capt. Thomas Cannon, arrived at the park early in the afternoon and remained until late in the evening. Both were hailed well met with the Knights and enjoyed all that went on.

Everybody who attended was pleased with everything they saw and heard in the park. At 10 o'clock the throng assembled around the music stand to witness the drawing of the tickets calling for two prizes. Capt. Oscar Maller presided at the drawing, and the winning numbers were drawn from the wheel by Lancaster V. Pottinger, a small boy and son of an Owensboro Knight. Ticket 3,049 won the rocking chair, and ticket 5,118 won the center table. Although the primary object of the reunion was to make the Knights and their families better acquainted, the enterprise resulted in an appreciable monetary gain for the treasury of the Central Committee.

BOWLING GREEN.

Last Saturday morning the remains of Mrs. Frances Vogel, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed women of Bowling Green, were laid to rest in St. Joseph's cemetery in that city. The deceased was a native of Bavaria, and came to Louisville fifty years ago, but later moved to Bowling Green, where she has since resided. Rev. Father Hayes was the officiating priest at the funeral and requiem mass, and in his sermon paid high tribute to Mrs. Vogel for her devotion to her church and her many excellent virtues and charitable disposition.

NATIONAL UNION MEETING.

The Catholic Young Men's National Union, an organization similar to the Y. M. I., in its aims and purposes, will hold its thirty-sixth annual convention at the Catholic Summer School, Cliff Haven, N. Y., on September 5, 6 and 7. Reports will be made by the branches in various States, and it is probable that some definite action looking toward the merging of the C. Y. M. N. U. and the Y. M. I. will be taken.

JESUIT INVENTOR.

The Rev. Father J. A. Devillias, a Jesuit now located at Cleveland, has invented and patented a globe which is expected to work a notable change in the teaching of geography in schools. In using the globe the intention is to have each child color the seas and countries for himself and paint or write in the geographical names. The globe may be placed on the market at an early date.

BADGE FOR CAPT. HOGAN.

Capt. Michael J. Hogan, of the Seventh district police station, was taken by surprise last Saturday night, when he was presented with a gold badge studded with diamonds. It is a handsome specimen of the goldsmith's art and reflects the esteem in which Capt. Hogan is held by his admirers in the Seventh district. The presentation was made by Attorney James P. Reedy.

FONTAINE FERRY PARK.

Fontaine Ferry Park is nearing the close of its season, but its popularity as an amusement resort is by no means waning. One of the big days this week was Tuesday, when the Catholic Knights of America held their reunion. Another good vaudeville bill will be presented next week, and new musical programmes will be rendered at the afternoon and evening concerts.

FALL RACE MEET.

The Louisville Jockey Club fall race meeting, now only five weeks off, will surpass any meet ever held here. Secretary Lyman Davis has the programme about completed, which includes ten stake races, with the best horses for contenders. Entries show that each event will be well filled.

CONFIRMATION.

Bishop O'Donoghue will make his first official visit to Owensboro and Daviess county on September 11, when he will confirm large classes at the three churches at Owensboro and the one at West Louisville. Before returning to this city Bishop O'Donoghue will go to Indianapolis, where he will be the assistant Bishop at the consecration of Bishop-elect Joseph Chartrand.

BIG STEAMERS

Of the Cunard Line Must Make the Irish
Port.

The announcement made by the Directors of the Cunard line that from September 1 to December 31 all their east bound steamships excepting the Lusitania and Mauretania will call at Queenstown, as well as Fishguard, has by no means tended to placate the Irish people who have been agitating for the retention of the Queenstown call in the itinerary of the line. Nothing short of the call of the two big steamships will make them fully satisfied, it is stated.

The next step, an outcome of the recent all-Ireland meeting of protest, will be a deputation headed by the Lord Mayors of Dublin and Belfast, which will start from Queens-town on September 22 en route to America. At Washington, D. C., they will lay their grievances before Frank H. Hitchcock, Postmaster General.

TROLLEY RIDES POPULAR.

Trolley lines in the Eastern States are fast attaining a popularity equal to if not surpassing the old railway lines. This is in large measure due to the rates, which are not more than half those charged in this section of the country. The distance from City Hall, New York City, to the center of Boston by trolley is 256 miles, and the fare is about $3. Assuming that all connections are made and the regular schedule made on the entire route, the time taken for the trip should be twenty hours and twenty minutes, but it would be well to make allowance for an occasional delay. Those who undertake the journey generally arrange to stop overnight at some convenient place half way to Boston.

IS IT THE TRUTH?

It is feared that Mackin Council's Bachelor Club to be here again. This time it is George Simons who is to answer the call to forsake bachelorhood to take up the duties of husband. Frank Adams, Jack McQueese and Charley Ralphy are arranging a shower for George and his blushing bride if he brings her home from Lanesville, Ind., next week.

UNITY COUNCIL'S OUTING.

Unity Council, Y. M. I., of New Albany, is making extensive preparations for the Labor day picnic to be held at Glenwood Park on the first Monday in September. The committee in charge is made up of George Bittner, John Stumler, John Pon-trich, Cornelius McBarron and Francis Uhlen.

ACTING NIGHT CHIEF.

Capt. Michael McAniff has been filling with grace and dignity the office of Night Chief of police during the absence of Major Patrick Ridge. Major Ridge and his wife have been enjoying a visit to his venerable mother and other relatives at Bedford, Ind.

IMPROVEMENT IS SLOW.

Bernard P. Mulloy, the well known New Albany merchant, who was kicked in the face by a vicious horse several weeks ago, is improving very slowly. Although he is now able to hobble, his wounds have not entirely healed, and he may lose the sight of one eye.

RURAL IMPROVEMENTS.

A new brick church and bome for the nuns who teach the parish school at Waverly, Union county, are being erected. Father McNeill, the pastor, is much encouraged by the assistance rendered him by members of his flock.

NUNS TAKE REST.

Sister Apollonia Wise and Sister Mary Martin, of Cedar Grove Academy, have gone to Bethlehem Academy in Hardin county for a week or ten days. They will return in time for the opening of the school season.

PRELATE'S GENEROSITY.

To induce the study of Celtic literature the Right Rev. Bishop Conaty has presented the public library of Los Angeles, Cal., with a valuable collection of books on Irish history and illuminated manuscripts.

NEW HOME FOR NUNS.

When the school season opens next month the Ursuline nuns teaching at Holy Trinity parochial school will be quartered in a home recently purchased for them by the pastor, Rev. Father Berresheim.

NEW SCHOOL NEEDED.

The members of Holy Cross parish expect to build a new parochial school and rectory in the near future. Every member of the congregation is anxious to assist Father Sheridan in his work.

SPIRITUAL RETREAT.

The Very Rev. Richard Wuerth, O. F. M., pastor of St. Boniface church, is spending this week at Oldenburg, Ind., where several hundred of the Franciscan community are in retreat.

EACH DAY A NEW LIFE.

Let us seek to begin each new day as serene and calm as though it were a new life, with nothing of the old remaining but its wisdom, its sweet memories, its duties, its responsibilities and the hopes, joys, privileges, love and possessions the old life has bequeathed to us.

PROUD LIMERICK.

Division 4' Excels Record of Ten Years in Receipts.

Division 4, A. O. H., held a joint business meeting and social session on Monday evening, and President John H. Hennessy is prouder than ever of his Limerick Hibernians. Two new members were elected. Dr. Charles Edelen delivered an admirably instructive address on tuberculosis, and his talk was heard with attention.

State President George J. Butler and County President Patrick Welsh were on hand to give an account of their stewardship as delegates to the recent national convention. Each made an interesting talk. John Hennessy and D. J. Coleman, visitors from Division 3, also made interesting talks. Refreshments were served and an hour or more was spent in social conversation.

The attendance was the largest of the year, and the receipts of the evening were the largest in ten years.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Of Cliff Haven Appreciates Work of its Alumnal.

The Alumnae Association of the Catholic Summer School at Cliff Haven, N. Y., under the direction of its President, Mrs. Charles Murray, held its annual midsummer meeting on Thursday of last week. The Right Rev. M. J. Lavelle, V. G., Moderator, was present for the occasion. This splendid association, which has done such fine work for the Catholic Summer School, has achieved new laurels during the past year in the form of two beautiful cottages erected on the grounds.

The election of officers resulted in the re-election of Mrs. Charles Murray, and the selection of the following board of officers: Miss Rose F. Egan, of Syracuse first Vice President; Mrs. Francis P. Walsh, of Philadelphia, Second Vice President; Miss Katherine Hogerty, of Brooklyn, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Edward J. Fitzgerald of New York, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Ida L. Gallagher, of White Plains, Treasurer.

RIVERVIEW.

Patrons of Riverview Park and lovers of good music are glad to know that Manager Simons has arranged for the popular Banda Roma to finish the season there. The vocal soloists will be Miss Hattie Belle Sister and Mme. Arnold, who have become great favorites. The swimming pool attracts much attention and the merry-go-round, joy ride, chutes, scenic railway and other amusement devices continue in operation and please everybody. Riverview never looked prettier than it does at this time. Tonight there will be a carnival of fireworks for the Newshoys' Home.

TYPHOID'S VICTIM.

Friends in Louisville were sorry to learn of the death of Miss Nora McElligott, which occurred at her home in Frankfort on Thursday of last week. Death was due to typhoid fever. The deceased was the daughter of Dan McElligott, a well known Frankfort tinsmith. She was highly respected and her grief-stricken father has the sympathy of many friends. The funeral took place from the Church of the Good Shepherd on Saturday morning.

ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE.

With the annual pilgrimage to the shrine of St. Ann, Isle La Motte, the ninth week of the present session of the Catholic Summer School at Cliff Haven, N. Y., opened last Sunday. The pilgrimage this year was one of the most successful ever held, more than 600 taking advantage of the opportunity to visit this famous shrine. This annual pilgrimage, which was inaugurated by the Rev. John F. Mulanney, LL. D., of Syracuse, has grown in interest and numbers with each succeeding year.

PERFECTING WIRELESS.

Clippings from the Bureau of the Catholic Truth Society, of New York, tell us that Father Richard Bell, S. J., head of the department of physics at Santa Clara College, California, has invented a machine that produces continuous oscillation in the wireless telephone, which has heretofore been seriously handicapped because the vibrations could not be made continuous.

WYBRANT'S NEW STUDIO.

Wybrant's photographic studio has removed to 543 South Preston street, and asks the patronage of old friends. Frank Wybrant, the manager, is an expert with the camera. He excels in both indoor and outdoor photography and makes a specialty of life-size portraits. Patrons can make engagements for sittings by calling the Wybrant studio over Home telephone 2962-3.

MOTION PICTURES.

For the entertainment of the patrons of the Orpheum and Casino theaters next week the very latest approved films have been secured, promising good summer amusement. There will be views never seen before, a number of which will be both instructive and amusing in character and well worth a visit.

GREEK PRIMATE ARRIVES.

His Excellency the Most Rev. Andrew Alexander Roman Sheptyski, Archbishop of Lemhoro and Primate of the Greek Catholic church in Galicia, Austria, arrived in New York on Tuesday. He is en route to Montreal to attend the Eucharistic Congress. While in America he will visit all the Greek Catholic churches and Ruthenian settlements in the United States and Canada.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 5 of Toronto, Can., has decided to organize a fife and drum band.

The Minnesota State convention will open at Fairbault on September 21 and continue for at least three days.

The sick and funeral benefits paid out by the order for the two years ending December 31 last was $886,643.

Division 3 will announce the date for the Phoenix Hill reunion and entertainment to the meeting to be held on September 2.

New York City Hibernians will have their field day tomorrow. They promise the greatest day of sports the order has ever run.

Only one meeting will be held next week, that of Division 2 on Friday night. An invitation is extended all members of the order to be present.

With its eight divisions Indianapolis sent the largest delegation that ever represented the Hoosier capital to the State convention at Terre Haute.

The Ohio State convention was held at Dayton this week. Much good for the order was accomplished and the work will bear fruit well into the future.

Division 1 of Minneapolis is arranging for a big initiation on September 4. It need not be surprising if Minnesota soon leads in the race for new members.

Wisconsin held its State convention this week at Janesville. Among the delegates from Milwaukee were Prof. Michael G. Rohan and President Joseph Callen.

The Juvenile Hibernians of San Francisco have made rapid strides this year. Their baseball team won eighteen out of nineteen games played before August 1.

Before leaving Jordan, Minn., for Renville, the Rev. Father Fahey was tendered a reception by the local Hibernians, when he received magnificent and costly presents and a handsome purse.

The donations of the Ancient Order for charitable purposes during the last two years reached the enormous sum of $94,850. This is a record next to that of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Virginia held its State convention this week at Richmond, opening Tuesday with high mass at St. Peter's church. The reports were highly gratifying and show a steady growth of the order.

All members who possibly can do so should respond to the invitation of the good Sisters and be present at the lawn fete for Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital on either Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

Features of the Vermont State convention at Burlington this week were a big initiation, parade, solemn high mass and sermon, public meeting, banquet and entertainment in afternoon on Lake Champlain and grand hall.

Kentucky is the only Southern State that teaches Irish history in any of its parochial schools. State Chairman James P. Barry says the work has only just commenced here and that the next report will show a gain of over 100 per cent.

National President Regan will represent the Ancient Order at the national convention of the Federation of Catholic Societies at New Orleans this fall. We would suggest that he be invited to spend at least one day and night in Louisville while on this trip. An official visit would bring all together and be productive of incalculable good.

NOTED VISITOR.

Assistant Mother General Is Visiting Home of Aged.

Mother Alexis of St. Teresa, Assistant Mother General of the Little Sisters of the Poor, spent this week at the home for the aged and infirm conducted by her order at Tenth and Magazine streets. Mother Alexis is making a general tour of the order's homes in the United States. Not the least important is the home in Louisville, where nearly 400 old people are cared for. There are fifty-one homes conducted by the Little Sisters in the United States. The largest is in Baltimore, where there are 1,500 inmates.

Mother Alexis is from St. Pern, France, where the mother house is located. It is presided over by Mother General Teresa.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISES.

The young friends of Miss Nannie McCue entertained her with a surprise party on her birthday, August 19, at her home at 2207 "Duncan street. Refreshments were served on the lawn, which was decorated with lanterns. During the evening games and musical numbers were indulged in, and all the folks had a good time. Covers were laid for the following: Misses Ruth Stone, Emma Adams, Ada Adams, Loretta Fahey, Virginia Fahey, Margaret Lynn, Nellie Ginter, Rosa Donohue, Mary Gallagher, Rose Kelly, Kathryn Gilligan, Mary Campbell, Lil Harrington, Nellie Barry, Wilma Klotz, Mary Margaret Swift, Gertrude Carr, Helen Barret, Nannie McCue, and Messrs. Roger Cline, Will Barry, Joe Barry, Frank Barry, George Campbell, John Fahey, John Davis, Patrick Swift, Rhinohart Fuchs, John Kolley, Steve Bannahan and John McCue.

NECESSARY IMPROVEMENTS.

Our venerable Cathedral of the Assumption, one of the oldest and stateliest in the United States, continues to undergo improvement. The interior decorating of last winter has been followed by exterior painting, and this will soon be succeeded by painting. New art glass win-

LAST APPEARANCE

Of John McCloskey and Milwaukee Club This Season.

John McCloskey's Milwaukee Brewers will play here again this afternoon, and tomorrow make their farewell appearance for the season by engaging in a double-header with the Colonels. Manager McCloskey has a host of well wishers here, who always turn out to see him, and rooting is pretty evenly divided. It will be the first opportunity many of the fans have had to see some of the new men, Allen, Galbraith, Burke and Byrd being unknown to the majority. It is a little early for the local management to arrange for next season, but popular favor and the support of the fans can be secured right now by contracting with Jimmy Burke to lead the team, which move would not be an experiment, as Jimmy has proven his ability as a leader. All critics here agree on this with the exception of the conceded gentleman who edits the Herald sporting department and who has begun to knock Burke, but of course this could be expected from a young man who not only attempts to regulate our sports here by vying endeavoring to dictate after bringing his second-hand column here.

HOPKINS' THEATER.

Hopkins' Theater will reopen tomorrow as a high class vaudeville and moving picture house. During a brief interim this popular playhouse has been redecorated and more modern equipments installed. It will be, as heretofore, the leading moving picture house of the South, and will be conducted by the Princess Amusement Company, whose able management has made the motion pictures such a success in Louisville. Admission will be only ten cents. There will be three performances daily.

SOJOURNER RETURNS.

Alderman James Treacy returned to Louisville on Tuesday after spending three months in Europe. His itinerary included Ireland, the British Isles, France, Belgium, Germany and Switzerland. He also witnessed the Passion Play at Oberammergau. Mr. Treacy has been benefited in health by his tour abroad, but was glad to get back to dear old Louisville.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

The late Ernest A. Kinnear, of Tralee, left a personal estate valued at $55,000.

Daniel Kelly, of Draperstown, County Derry, is healthy and strong at the great age of 106 years.

The annual collection of Peter's Pence in the various churches in the Dublin diocese has amounted to $8,000.

At the interment of Mrs. George Maher at Nenagh her nine sons with the father were the chief mourners.

A resolution of sympathy with the Aglish evicted tenants has been passed by the Callan Board of Guardians.

During the first part of August the potato blight has spread with great rapidity over South Tyrone and the Clogher Valley districts.

P. J. O'Callaghan, assistant in the Strahane Gas Works, was appointed gas manager in Omagh at a meeting of the local Urban Council.

The Rev. J. Flynn, of Clonakilly, has been ordained to the priesthood by the Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, the Bishop of Ross, in the Pro-Cathedral at Skibbereen.

The late Manus McFadden, J. P., of Letterkenny, whose death is much lamented, was father of Edward McFadden and Bernard McFadden, Secretary of Donegal County Council.

Dr. S. R. Richardson, a native of Kesh, County Fermanagh, at present engaged in the Lock Hospital at Dublin, has been appointed house surgeon to the Fermanagh County Hospital.

A memorial service was held in St. Nicholas's Collegiate church at Galway in connection with the death of Miss Blake, who perished in the fire in Menloah Castle. There was a large congregation.

The Kerry County Council decided to apply to the Roads Board for a grant of $100,000 for the repair and reconstruction of the roads in the Killarney and other tourist sections of the county, owing to the severe wear and tear caused by the incessant motor traffic.

A verdict of death from exhaustion and exposure was returned at an inquest held at Buncanniff, regarding the death of John Geary, a native of Roundstone, Connemara, who had been missing and whose body was found by some shepherds on a mountain near Maam.

General regret is felt in Limerick at the death of John Gilligan, Inspector of the night watch, a position occupied by him for the past eleven years. He was appointed during the Mayoralty of John Daly, who effected a reformation of the old system of regulating the control of the city night watch.

Much regret is felt in Galway at the death of Peter O'Shaughnessy, proprietor of the Court Theater, which occurred at the County Hospital. A native of Turloughmore, O'Shaughnessy has been in Galway for many years, and enjoyed much popularity among a large section of the community.

ABLE DELEGATES

Will Represent Kentucky at Supreme Council of Y. M. I.

James T. Shelley, Supreme Director of the Y. M. I., will leave Louisville on Tuesday for San Francisco, where the Supreme Council of the order will assemble on September 5 and remain in session a week. The age limit, now thirty-five years, will be the vital question discussed. Mr. Shelley has been urged to make the race for Supreme President of the order. Although he has not made up his mind to make the race, gratifying their pleasure.

ADD SHELLEY ARTICLE.
Robert T. Burke, Kentucky Grand Council's delegate to the Supreme convention of the Y. M. I., left Louisville for San Francisco on Wednesday. He will ably represent Kentucky, and our State will certainly be well taken care of by Messrs. Shelley and Burke.

SUSTAINED SLIGHT INJURY.

James T. Shelley was slightly injured in a head-on collision between a Big Four and a B. and O. train the other day. Mr. Shelley was traveling through Indiana on business. Fortunately his injuries were of such a nature that he did not have to curtail his trip. Although limping slightly, Mr. Shelley bears his pain pleasantly and is thankful that he got off so lightly. His bruised leg will not prevent his trip to the Y. I. Supreme convention at San Francisco next month. Mr. Shelley's telephone was busy for several days through calls of anxious friends, and he declares that he is just realizing how many friends he has. Through the Kentucky Irish American he desires to thank them all for their solicitous inquiries and expressions of sympathy.

JEFFERSONVILLE WEDDING.

Miss Julia Buehler and Gus Vissing, well known young people of Jeffersonville, will be united in marriage at St. Augustine's church in that city on September 21. The attendants will be James Buehler, a brother of the prospective bride, and Miss Louise Gilooley, of Louisville. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buehler, of 409 Pearl street, and the fortunate groom is a plumber and resides with his father, Henry Vissing, of 1011 East Maple street.

CAPT. KANE IMPROVING.

Capt. Gus Kane, who submitted to a serious surgical operation at St. Joseph's Infirmary on Tuesday, is making favorable progress toward recovery. His friends expect to see him out within a week.
